Other details/suggestions for applicants:

- A total of 40 $500 grants will be awarded.
- If awarded, this scholarship is dependent on the determination of the Financial Aid Office as to whether a student can receive additional funding.
- Students should note that the GPA which will be used to determine eligibility is the overall combined GPA as of the February 6, 2019 deadline (and not before).
- Students do not need to be fully accepted into their education abroad program in order to apply for this scholarship. However, it is necessary for students to know which program and term they plan to participate in (or apply for) order to submit the correct scholarship application.
- Only applications which meet all above criteria will be forwarded for award consideration.
- Only applications which are submitted for the correct education abroad term will be forwarded for award considered.
- Students receiving the Confucius Institute Scholarship are not eligible for the Academic Success Grant.
